Interim Regional Minister - Rev. Bill Robey

Bill Robey was affirmed by the Regional Board as the Northern Lights Region's Interim Regional Minister in September 2022. Bill comes well qualified as an interim minister, having shepherded seven congregations in the western United States through their own threshold times between pastors. He served as a settled congregational pastor in Louisiana and at Sumner First Christian Church in the former Northwest Region before "retiring" and becoming an intentional interim minister. Bill also has experience in numerous regional capacities as well, including being part of the Transformation and New Church teams, and as acting Regional Minister during the previous regional minister's sabbatical.

Bill is honored to be called to this role in the Northern Lights Region and to be serving the Region and its congregations.

Bill lives near Puyallup, Washington with his wife Connie and their dog Ringo.

Regional Administrator - Robin Crabb

Provides administrative and program support to staff, leaders, and congregations in the Region.

Robin joined the Northern Lights regional staff in March 2022. She brings with her two decades of administrative experience and working remotely, including ten years as a partner with oversight of the administration sector of a global corporation. In parallel with her administrative positions, Robin was a dedicated church volunteer at First Christian Church of Puyallup for 21 years, serving in a wide variety of roles. She is honored and humbled to be able to now serve the Region, its pastors, and congregations in a combined role of administrator, supporter, and servant.

Robin and her husband Thom live in Puyallup, Washington with their dog Jasper.
